Fishing in Lake Metroparks

Lake Metroparks is committed to protecting existing water resources and preserving areas through purchase and easement opportunities. Access for anglers has been made possible through construction of trails, parking areas, canoe landings and decks.

A State of Ohio fishing license is required for persons age 16 and older for fishing in all rivers and tributaries, Granger Pond at Veterans Park and for fishing along and in Lake Erie. Visit wildlife.ohiodnr.gov/fishingregulations for license information.

A State of Ohio fishing license is not required by children or adults to fish in these ponds, except where noted:

- Blair Ridge Park (fishing by Lake Metroparks permit only)
- Chapin Forest Reservation
- Concord Woods Nature Park
- Girdled Road Reservation
- Hidden Lake (catch & release only)
- Hidden Valley Park (pond fishing at River Rd. entrance)
- Penitentiary Glen Reservation
- River Road Park

• It is unlawful to transport and introduce any aquatic species (fish, invertebrate, plant) from one body of water to another.

• Always pick up your trash, discarded line, old hooks and bait. Please leave fishing site just as clean or cleaner than you found it.

• Respect the space of other anglers and give room to anglers playing a fish.

• Please use proper release methods when fish are not retained.
